Porterhouse will be re-releasing select pieces of Art's body of work, both from his formative bands Young Canadians and Shmorgs to his award winning work as a solo artist. There'll even be a few rarities from in-between projects he has participated in over the years.

The first gem to see the light of day will be "Hawaii" the seminal recording from Young Canadians. Originally released in 1979 the Bob Rock produced E.P. is one of the first West coast punk rock records ever created. Out of print for decades, the E.P. will be re-issued on limited edition custom clear orange vinyl. The package will include the original lyric sleeve and an outake from the original jacket artwork in the form of an easter egg insert of the infamous Bev Davies beach photo featuring Art, naked on a rocky beach at Kitsilano, Vancouver.

Porterhouse Records will be announcing the Track Listing and revealing Album Cover Art for "Late Stage Empire Dementia" as well as forthcoming release dates for Singles the L.P., Videos and the "Hawaii" E.P. in subsequent press releases. The album will be available on Compact Disc as well as Digitally.
